2. Export agreements concluded at the Leipzig Fair total about 35,000,000 Reichsmarks. Because all orders are to be filled by the end of 1947, some production of Soviet A.G. plants is to be released for export purposes. Negotiations on this point are proceeding with a Russian industrial commission in Potsdam staffed by Germans under Russian directors. [redacted] agreement: The Russian commission to determine the capacity of Soviet A.G. plants discussed [redacted] may be the same as the commission mentioned above.)
3. All agreements were made on a barter basis. The prices were calculated at the 1936 price level. The export agreements concluded were approximately as follows:
